Academy arrangements for industrial action by teachers - Wednesday 1st March 2023

Dear Parents

As you may well be aware, the second planned teacher strike action is due to take place on Wednesday 1st March 2023. As a consequence, unfortunately we are not in a position to allow all Year groups to attend Redhill on this date.

As previously mentioned and in line with Department for Education guidance, it is our intention to keep The Redhill Academy open but will be prioritising the examination classes of Years 11 and 13, as well as vulnerable students. A separate letter will follow for these students to clarify arrangements for the day.

For all other year groups (Years 7-10 and 12), work will be provided on ClassCharts to complete at home. This work will be a combination of work set by their teachers and directed revision activities. Whilst working at home, students should aim to follow the usual timings of the school day. Students in receipt of free school meals in these Year groups will receive a voucher from the Academy.

Of course, school will resume in full operation on Thursday 2nd March. Thank you for your understanding and continued support.

Yours sincerely

Mike Hardy
