Academy arrangements for industrial action by teachers –
Wednesday 5th July and Friday 7th July 2023

Dear Parents

As you may well be aware, two further planned teacher strike action days are to take place on Wednesday 5th July and Friday 7th July 2023. As a consequence, unfortunately we are not in a position to allow all year groups to attend Redhill on these dates.

These strike days also take place in the same week as two previously planned staff INSET days which have been in the school calendar since the start of the academic year. For clarity:

Fri 30 June	INSET Day – school is closed
Weekend
Mon 3 July	INSET Day – school is closed
Tue 4 July	Normal School Day – all students to attend as usual
Wed 5 July	Industrial Action Day – students to access education from home
Thu 6 July	Normal School Day – all students to attend as usual
Fri 7 July	Industrial Action Day – students to access education from home (except Y10 who will be prioritised to attend due to being their final year)

For all year groups (years 7-10), work will be provided on ClassCharts to complete at home. This work will be a combination of work set by their teachers and directed revision activities. Whilst working at home, students should aim to follow the usual timings of the school day. Students in receipt of free school meals in these Year groups will receive a voucher from the Academy.

School will resume in full operation for all students (years 7-10 and 12) on Monday 10th July.

Yours sincerely

Mike Hardy
